Condition with the Civil representatives seem to be devoted to retrenchment and reform in other and more vulnerable quarters. A strong sentiment prevails in favor of dispensing with juries in civil cases, except when demanded by either party. This, if done, will work a great reform throughout the State. The commissions of Hevenue Collectors and Trustees will probably be reduced—in fact, the bill of Mr. Williamson provides for the abolishment of Tax-Collectors, and requires Trustees to collect the revenue. This is done to save the commission of the Collectors. Inasmuch as nearly every member has an idea of
